What We Do

Kitchen Door was born out of a love for food and entertaining. Over the last decade, we have evolved to include a wide variety of locally crafted prepared meals made by our talented culinary team right here in Nova Scotia. Our meals are created from scratch, using simple ingredients, often local, and always delicious! We hand select ingredients to ensure only the highest quality of products leave our facility. Our drop-off catering meals are packed with fresh and healthy ingredients that can be picked up or delivered ready to serve.

Who We Are

Our company has a phenomenal leadership team that excels at sales development, quality food production, and logistics to bring our customers genuinely innovative food products. This includes our founder/CEO, Patty Howard, who started Kitchen Door in 2008 as a one-woman catering company out of a 150 square foot space. Her passion for entertaining, great food, and perfectly executed events helped the company grow into one of Nova Scotia's leading events and catering companies with a 10,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility in Dartmouth. Since 2020, the company has focused on building on its core competencies, including high-quality chef-crafted prepared meals, contract food services, Virtual Cooking Classes & Events, and a new production model to include a CFIA inspected facility for manufacturing - with brand partners like Yo-Yo Cookies™ Canada, Crafty Beasts Brewing Co. and other local Atlantic Canadian companies.
